

Psychology Professional Community: AQA Psychology update

Wednesday 12th January 2022, 14:00 - 15:00, ONLINE

AQA Psychology updates for the South West

As a forerunner to the launch of the SWIFT Psychology Professional Community, SWIFT is delighted to welcome Helen Arman, AQA Relationship Manager for the South West and Rosie McGinley, Head of Curriculum (Psychology) at AQA, to give an update on what's happening in AQA Psychology.

Agenda

- Introduction from Helen Arman, AQA Relationship Manager, South West

Rosie McGinley:

- Updates from AQA Psychology
- AQA Resources
- Examiner reports – key messages from Autumn 2021 series.
- EDI

Guest Speaker: Rosie McGinley

Before joining AQA as Head of Curriculum (Psychology), in April 2020, Rosie taught psychology for 30 years. She first taught at a college in North London, and during her teaching career she had a range of roles, including: Senior Lecturer (Social Sciences), Head of A-levels, Quality Manager for Health and Social Care, and Head of Faculty for STEM. More recently, she was a Sixth Form Manager at a grammar school in Guernsey. She has also enjoyed the position of teaching fellow on a PGCE (Psychology) at a university in Staffordshire.

Whilst teaching, she also worked as an associate for AQA, most recently as an Assistant Principal on 7182/2 and 7182/1.

With an introduction by: Helen Arman, AQA Relationships Manager SW
